State Senator Tony Guglielmo

Senator Tony Guglielmo, of Stafford, was first elected to represent the 35th Senatorial District in the General Assembly in 1992. He is ranking member on the Public Safety Committee, Program Review and Investigations, Executive and Legislative Nominations and the Internship Committees.

Senator Guglielmo, who retired as president and owner of the Penny-Hanley & Howley Co., Inc. in Stafford, is active in civic and political affairs. He was appointed by President Bush to the U.S. Small Business Administration National Advisory Council in 1989. Prior to this, Senator Guglielmo was appointed by President Reagan to the Federal Council on Aging in 1981. He served as a member of the Executive Committee to Elect George Bush President in 1987-88, and as an alternate member of the Connecticut Delegation to both the 1988 and 2008 Republican National Convention.

On the state level, Senator Guglielmo, a graduate of the University of Connecticut, is a member and past chairman of the UConn Parents Committee and a former member of the Board of Directors of the Connecticut Association for the Prevention of Child Abuse. Locally, he has served as the former Chairman of the Tolland Bank Board of Directors and a past member of the Johnson Memorial Hospital Board of Directors, and was the former chairman of the Johnson Memorial Hospital Development Corporation. Senator Guglielmo also served on the Board of Directors of the New Alliance Bank Foundation. He was a former member of the Stafford Nuclear Waste Site Committee, and is past president of the Stafford Cemetery Association.

Senator Guglielmo served in the U.S. Army non-combat from 1962-1968. He holds a B.A. in political science from the University of Connecticut and a Masters Degree in history from Trinity College. He and his wife, Doris, are the parents of three adult daughters and have eight grandchildren. They live in Stafford.