Subject: Tax Hike - Public Hearing Testimony

Dear Senator Fasano and Representative Klarides:

Having lived and worked (as a professional engineer) in Connecticut for my entire adult life, I am sorry to say that I am finding it increasingly beyond my means to continue to live here. The taxes imposed on the working and retired residents of this state are beyond excessive. As I approach retirement, I find myself considering relocating to places with more reasonable governments that spend less of my hard earned and limited money to benefit special interests far more than the general public.

Connecticut government has become a bloated parasite sucking the financial life out of the taxpayers, with no end in sight.
