Subject: Tax Hike - Public Hearing Testimony

Dear Senator Fasano and Representative Klarides:

I live in Glastonbury, the tenth wealthiest town in Connecticut. All my neighbors are moving to Charleston, SC. Both parties believe the wealthy are glued to Connecticut, but they are the ones who can leave the fastest for Boca, Atlanta, or points west. In the Glastonbury synagogue they have 50% of members on dues abatement. The population is tapped out. My $10000 in property tax is $1800 in Charleston, and $2400 in Atlanta. Pretty soon the only ones left will be those on welfare and Medicaid, and only because they couldn't afford to leave
