Dear Senator Fasano and Representative Klarides:

I think there are too many taxes coming out of the pay checks of the lower and middle classes as it is. I think things like welfare fraud should be looked into. Stop that and it would save a lot of our state money being wasted that could be used for more important things like education. I see it all of the time, people selling their food stamps to the little convenience stores for fifty cents on the dollar to get their cigarettes and buy drugs.
