Subject: Tax Hike - Public Hearing Testimony

Dear Senator Fasano and Representative Klarides:

I retired from a fire department in the metro Atlanta area and decided to move back to where we grew up. Boy was that a mistake. The North has always ridiculed the South about their mannerisms, speech and way of life. I believe it is time for the North to follow the South's lead. In the South business thrives and people are prosperous. In the North all that is heard about is how taxes are going up and people and business is moving out. Way to go Dan Malloy and friends. You have ruined a great state by being short sighted greedy and selfish. You should be ashamed of what your policies are doing to this state.
